Foreword

Old Father Time is set in his ways and we know that we can never make him bring back school days. But in years to come may we briefly turn back the pages of time as we turn the pages of the 1953 WILDCAT.

Standing: Carter, Hardin, Crocker. Seated: Patterson, Hubbard, S. Williams, Myers, J. Williams, Forrest, Pittman.

Dedication

For the high principles in which she believes,
for the religion which she puts into practice, for the honesty and sincerity of her character and for the years of unselfish service to the students of Calhoun City High School, we honor Mrs. S. L. Dobbs, a shining example of the true teacher.

Each school year brings to us a new challenge. The physical facilities of our school continue to improve, but at the expense of our students, can merit. Let us hope that citizens and the future district. Let us hope the opportunities offered and in that way I challenge each of you to so apply yourself that you may learn to do his work better than every other fellow does his, your time has come when that he may dual must be able to do his work well in a fast moving world. meet his competitor and hold his own in a fast moving world.

I should like to express my appreciation to the student body for your thoughtfulness, your consideration, and your contributions of good citizenship to our school. As a whole, I do not believe there is another like you. So with deep and sincere admiration for each of you, permit me to urge again that you "Be Prepared."

Best Wishes,

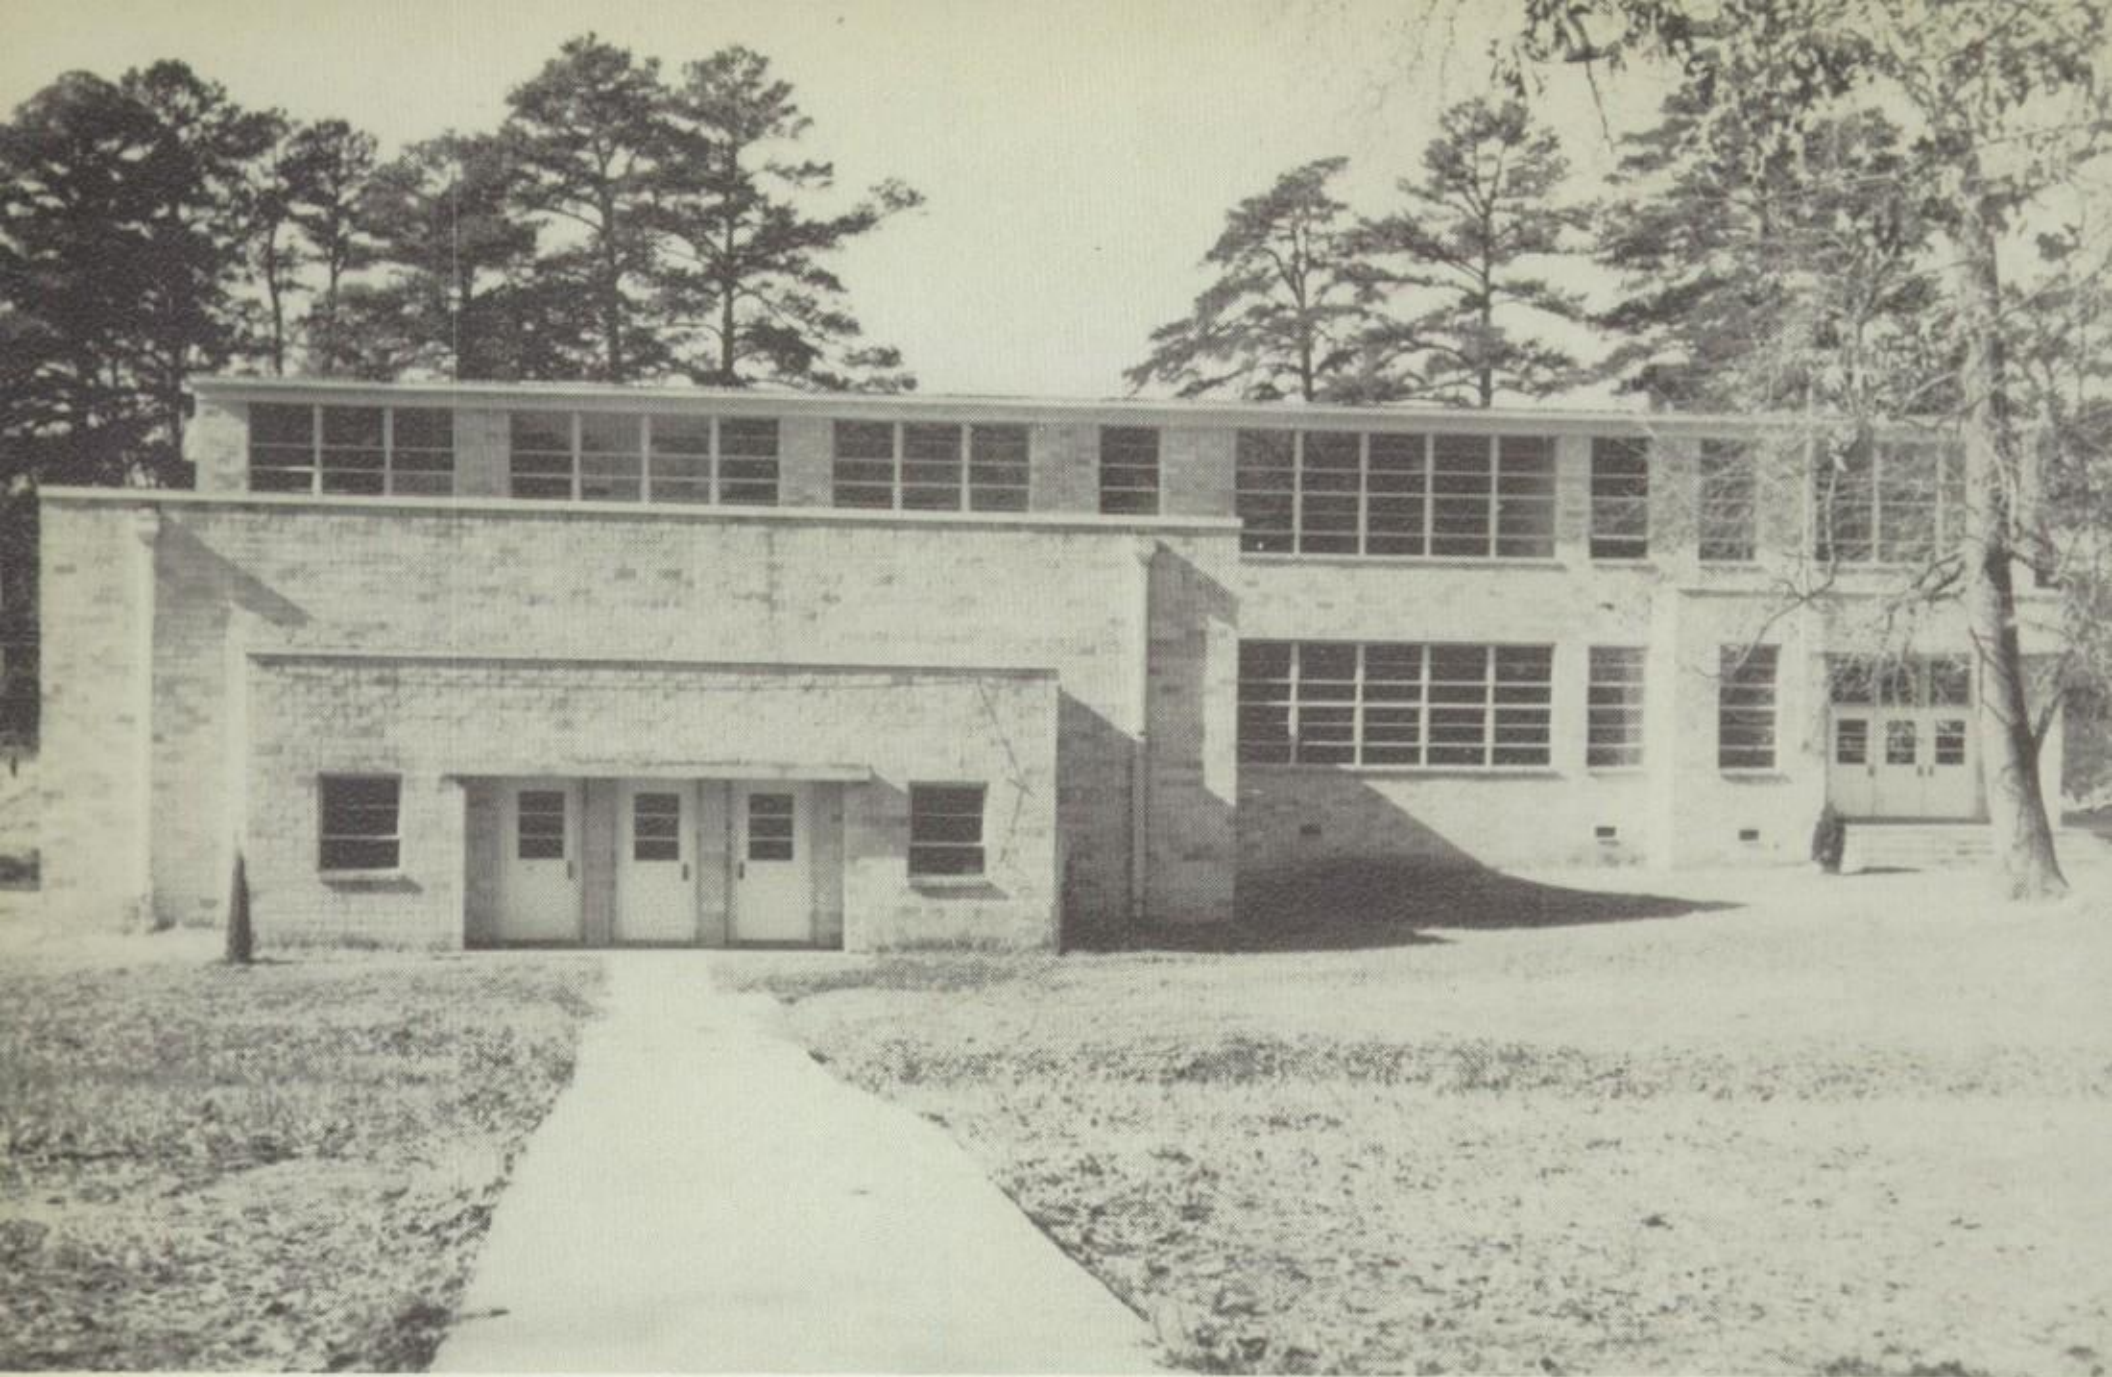

W. L. Harrison

Hall of Fame

The 1952-1953 Y-Teen Club of Calhoun City High School decided to sponsor the "Hall of Fame" for the WILDCAT publication. The high school faculty were asked to select five members from the Senior class, students who had shown outstanding qualities. These pupils must be above the average in scholastic attainments; they must engage in extra-curricular activities, pertaining both to school and community; they must have a good personality and show themselves to be good citizens; and their attitude must be such that makes them leaders among their fellow students. The club hopes that the "Hall of Fame" will continue through the years.

Dear Mr. Cox:

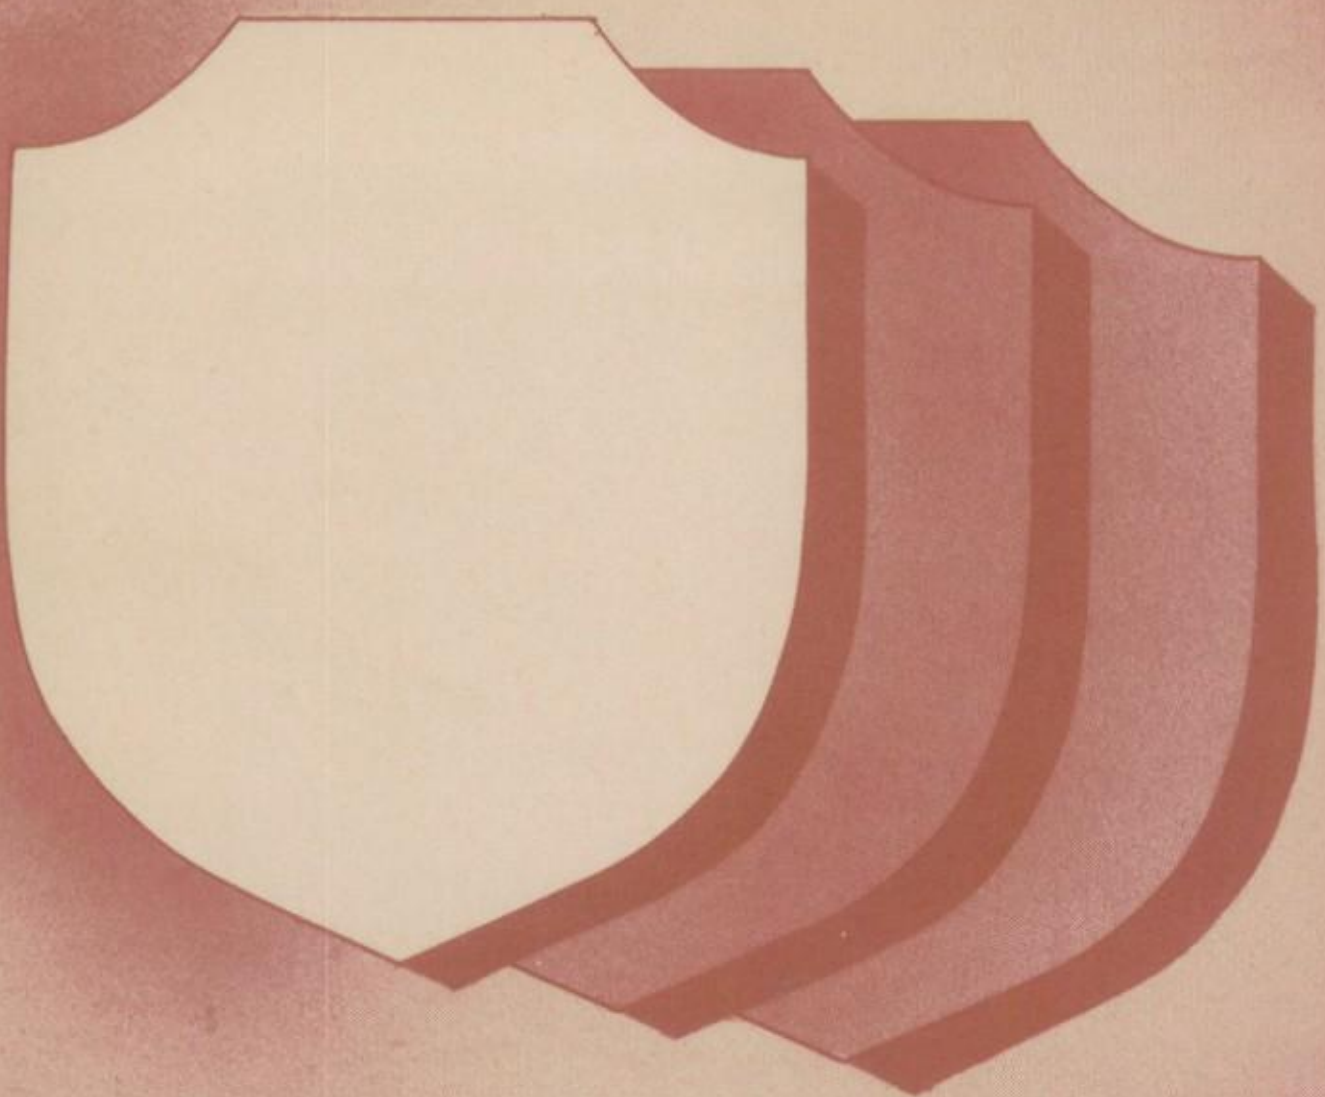

I have learned much from you during the 5½ years you have been my teacher. I have really enjoyed having you for an instructor. Since this is my last year here, I want to wish you a very delightful future.

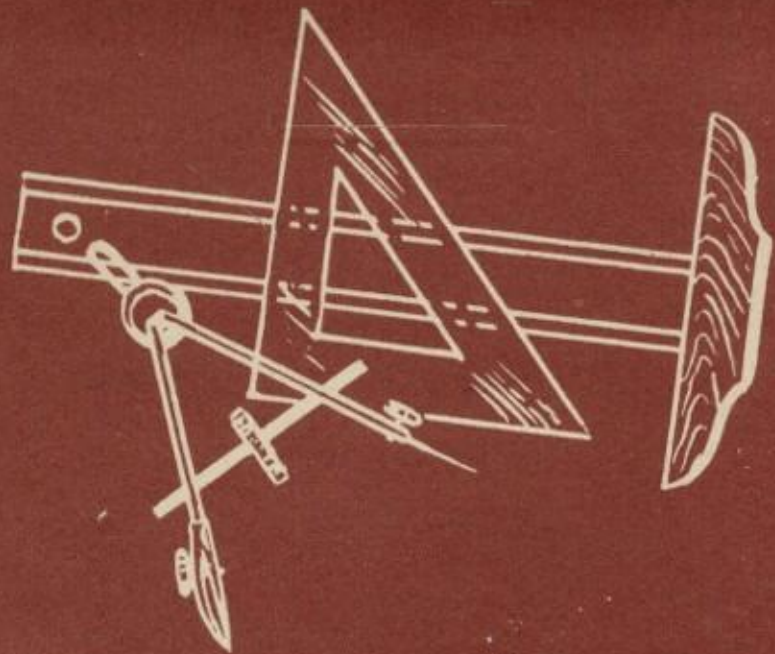

Sincerely,
Bobbie Hamilton

Dear Mr. Cox:

Truly I have enjoyed being a pupil of yours. You have been a great help to me and I certainly appreciate it. I only hope I can continue and improve on the things you have taught me.

Good Luck Always,
Anne Byars
